Well done ! keep up the good work!

Catalyst competition

Huge congratulations to Amrita in Y4 and Gavin in Y1 for their winning designs. On Monday the refuse lorries with their designs came into the school playground! Their photos will also appear in the local paper shortly.

TfL Year 6 workshop

Year 6 are beginning to look ahead to high school with transition events in the next few weeks. As many will be travelling by public transport, TfL came to give a talk about the importance of keeping safe.

Summer Fair

please start bringing in your items! The more we get, the more money we can raise for the school!

Happy Eid

To all those families and staff who are celebrating this weekend, Happy Eid!

NSPCC assemblies and workshops

Mr Bailey organised a visit from the NSPCC to support children in their rights and how to stay safe. For example, the Underwear Rule and how to Talk PANTS. It was a very interesting and informative day. Please go to their website at www.nspcc.org.uk for more details

Grenfell Tower fundraiser

On Monday at 11 am, we held a minute's silence for the victims on Monday at 11 am. But the children wanted to do more, so Younis asked if they could organise a fundraiser. On Friday everyone came in their own clothes and made a contribution which will be sent to the victims via the Red Cross. Thank you everyone for your generosity.

Year 1 assembly on Refugee Week

Well done to year 1 for their excellent assembly on Friday. They linked it to our UNICEF Rights approach, highlighting important articles.

Mrs Rupra gave the children a chance to reflect on recent events in London, and to remember that we need to promote good over evil at all times by remembering our Havelock Values.
